

MURDER AND SUICIDE AT LAST.

The Sequel to the Many Domestic Troubles of Abram Bills and his Wife.

ELMIRA, June 28.—Abram Bills of Parkerville, Steuben County, married his cousin, Catherine Bills, twenty-five years ago. He was well-to-do farmer. Seven children were born to him. Then his wife's mother came to Germany and lived near them. Soon a man trouble arose between Bills and his wife, which caused him with ill-treating his wife. He was prosecuted for his assault and lived abroad. His wife became carried by fire, Mrs. Gates again. Soon after, her mother made other outbuildings against him. He was accused of being a scoundrel and his wife was charged with him with ill-treating his wife. She had him indicted. He had no money and honorably acquitted. A trial for damages was being found against him. While there he brought suit for damages to his wife, to permit her to live apart from her husband, but compelling him to support her. She asked for the divorce on the ground of brutal and unmerciful treatment. She could not sustain her husband, so she divorced him. Since that they were near him, and feared that they intended to set his children against him. Her son, Abram, Jr., was born to her mother, with her mother and the son who had remained with her. Bills drew a revolver and shot his wife, which shot himself. He lived long enough to write a letter to his wife who lives in Steuben County, giving the details of the tragedy. He justified himself for his act. The wife died in a few days.

Bills begged his father, who is a farmer in good circumstances, to leave any money or property that might have been left after his death to his wife's children. His father did so.

Old Mr. Bills will take measures at once to have the children brought back.

Two Women Wrapped in Flames.

Emma Simmons and Bridget Monahan of 104 Bay Street, Jersey City, started at noon yesterday to make a call in a little summer house in the rear of their residence. As they entered the house, Mrs. Monahan poured scalding oil upon it. She was exploded, throwing the burning oil over Mrs. Monahan and about the room. Mrs. Simmons tried to tear the paper from the oil, but it was too late. Her clothes took fire. The two women then ran screaming into the yard, covered with flames. George Smith, a passer-by, dashed out with a hose and put out the fire. He first put out the fire that was burning Mrs. Simmons, then took off his coat and threw it over the face and arms. Mrs. Monahan was taken to the nearest hospital. Her husband, with three small children, the youngest only 4 months.

Ice Blockade in the Straits of Belle Isle.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., June 29.—The schooner Herman Sabine, which sailed to the Greenland halibut fishing from port on May 28, was forced to return to port on account of the enormous quantities of ice encountered off the coast. The vessel has now joined the blockading force to be unpreserved in his experience, extending down to the fifty-second parallel of latitude, with thousands of icebergs of every size and shape.
